

Order form

Studies in Irish Economic and Social History

Please supply the following copies of Studies in Irish Economic and Social History, to the address below:

| Title | Author | Price | |
|--|-------------------|------------------------------------|------------|
| | | Euro 9 or £6.50 each | Qty |
| Irish emigration 1801-1921 | David Fitzpatrick | | |
| Landlords and tenants in Ireland 1848-1901 | W.E. Vaughan | | |
| Religion and society in nineteenth-century Ireland | Sean Connolly | | |
| The interwar economy in Ireland | David Johnson | | |
| The modern industrialisation of Ireland 1940-1988 | Liam Kennedy | | |
| The transformation of the Irish economy 1550-1700 | Raymond Gillespie | | |
| Women and work in Ireland | Mary E. Daly | | |
| Irish emigration since 1921 | Enda Delaney | | |

Total

Name

Address.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Payment: Please make cheques payable to Dundalgan Press Ltd.

Please send this form to:

Dundalgan Press
The Industrial Estate
Coe's Road
DUNDALK
Co Louth
IRELAND

The Economic and Social History Society of Ireland, a registered charity, was founded in 1970 to promote the study of these disciplines both in Ireland, and in relation to Ireland. As well as publishing this pamphlet series, it produces an annual journal, Irish Economic and Social History, and holds an annual conference. For more information on the Society please contact:

The Membership Secretary
ESHSI
Dept of Modern History
Trinity College, Dublin
DUBLIN
IRELAND